BEEF AND SAUSAGE LOAF

To two pounds of beef add one pound of sausage meat. Mix thoroughly. Salt to taste. To one egg add two tablespoons of water or milk and mix into meat. Add three tablespoons of fine crumbs. Shape into long narrow loaf and put in skillet with half a cup of water and a slice of onion. Cover with pan and set skillet in over. Baste often.

A SAUCY SAURIAN

While picking berries near John Fessler's place Dr. Wolfman and Mr. Swinney disturbed a five-foot alligator. Mr. Swinney was standing on him quietly gathering berries when suddenly his feet fell out from under him.—Anachuac (Tex.) Progress.

THANHAUSER KIDS WANT TO BE CALLED BY RIGHT NAMES

These are the Thanhouser twins. Long ago they gave up the hope of people ever being able to tell them apart. But as they are now at the grownup age of 13, they DO wish folks would call them by their right names, Marion and Madeline Fairbanks.

Each weighs 74 pounds. Each is just four feet ten inches tall. They have dark hazel eyes, light brown curly hair and fair complexions.

Sometimes the Thanhouser twins write poetry. One writes the first

Madeline and Marion Fairbanks.

stanza and the other the second. Ordinary sisters couldn't do that, perhaps. But these little girls are TWINS.
